A selection from Matthew included in the Lesson-Sermon speaks of Jesus' experience in the Galilean mountains. It is related that "great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he will overcome them by understanding their nothingness and the aliveness of God, of good. Sickness to him is no less a temptation than is sin, and he heals them both by understanding God's power over them."

Many's Time We Feasted...

Although divorced since last May, Paulette Goddard and Charles Chaplin, shown here at Hollywood night club, certainly do not seem at anything like swords points. Probably thanking each other for the memories.

Daughter Petitions for George Comer's Estate

Vera M. Weber, 1903 Andree ave., petitioned Los Angeles county superior court this week for letters of administration to the estate of her late father, George L. Comer, who died last July 16 in Los Angeles.

Cash not to exceed $5,000 is the principal item listed in the estate, according to the petition, which was set for hearing on Aug. 10. Two sons, Ray L. Comer and Cecil B. Comer of Torrance, and another son and a daughter in Long Beach also survive the father.
